CLARK COUNTY APPLICATION

Name: Drew Rowe Christensen

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Please provide employment history for the past 15 years beginning with current or most recent employment, including self-employment and periods of unemployment.

Current or Last Employer: Clark County

Phone Number: 702-455-3362

Address/City/State/Zip Code: 500 S. Grand Central Pkwy, 6th Floor, Las Vegas, NV 89155

From: 02/2008 To: Present

Supervisor's Name/Title: Jeff Wells – Assistant County Manager

Your Title: Director of the Office of Appointed Counsel

Duties (be specific):

I am Clark County's first Director of the Office of Appointed Counsel. The office was founded in 2008, and I was hired to develop and create the office in a way that fit with the criminal justice system in Clark County, while adhering to the mandates of the Nevada Supreme Court in ADKT 411.

As Clark County's Director of the Office of Appointed Counsel, I oversee the Indigent Defense Panel, which consists of approximately 120 attorneys who contract with Clark County to provide legal representation to indigent clients in adult and juvenile criminal defense cases and termination of parental rights cases. I chair the Indigent Defense Selection and Appointment Committee (IDSAC), which reviews attorney applicants for admission to the panel. All attorneys are subject to yearly reviews by the IDSAC regarding the renewal of their contract with Clark County.

I am responsible for all private attorney appointments in Clark County, including all private appointments in capital murder litigation in Clark County. In order to ensure that only qualified attorneys are appointed in such cases, I require, not only that the attorneys appointed in capital murder cases are qualified under Nevada Supreme Court Rule 250, but also that each attorney is independently approved by the IDSAC.

I administratively oversee the work of these attorneys in all appointed cases, including answering legal and administrative questions from the attorneys themselves, fielding calls or complaints from the clients or courts, tracking caseloads, and reviewing documents filed by the attorneys on behalf of the clients. I receive and assess all attorney requests for experts, investigators, and any additional case specific work. I also review hundreds of invoices submitted by attorneys, experts, and investigators each and every month. I oversee a budget of approximately $11 million. I track all costs per case, and keep and provide data regarding the costs associated with any particular type of case, including, but not limited to, capital murder litigation. I also regularly track statistical and other pertinent information regarding the quality and cost of indigent legal representation in Clark County.

As a community partner in the criminal justice system, I also work closely with County Management, the District Attorney's Office, the Public Defender's Office, the Special Public Defender's Office, the private attorney bar, and the Justice, District and Supreme Courts. I recognize the impact that each of these community partners has on the Clark County Board of Commissioners, and, therefore, on Clark County as a whole. I regularly attend monthly meetings for the Justice Courts and the Eighth Judicial District Courts, as well as a variety of meetings with other community partners, in order to discuss both procedural and administrative issues within the criminal justice and family court systems. I am in frequent contact with the Justice and District Courts and attorneys regarding administrative issues.

Reason for leaving: Currently employed.

Current or Last Employer: University of Phoenix

Phone Number: 702-638-7279

Address/City/State/Zip Code: 57455 W. Washington Ave, Las Vegas, NV 89128

From: 2005 To: Present

Supervisor's Name/Title: Caesar Gerrard – Area Chair – Criminal Justice Department

Your Title: Instructor

Duties (be specific):

As an instructor in the college of Criminal Justice, I teach a variety of courses at the University of Phoenix, at both the undergraduate and graduate level. Over the course of the last six years I have taught dozens of classes. Some of the courses I teach include Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, Criminal Court Systems, Ethics, and Organizational Behavior and Management.

I typically teach once a week for four hours. In addition to classroom time, I am responsible for reviewing and grading written work and tests, and answering student questions as they arise. I also attend regular University of Phoenix policy meetings to discuss improvements to the curriculum and the education provided by the university.

One of the most rewarding aspects of my position is the relationships I develop with the students I teach. Many of my students are already employed in law enforcement or the legal field, and aspire to advance in their careers through education. I attend graduation ceremonies for the students I teach, and support them in their endeavors. I often provide letters of recommendation and advice to students, in some circumstances even long after they have graduated from the program. I consistently receive extremely positive reviews and high marks on the students' written instructor evaluations.

Current or Last Employer: Clark County Public Defender

Phone Number: 702-455-4685

Address/City/State/Zip Code: 309 S. Third St, Las Vegas, NV 89155

From: 1998 To: 02/2008

Supervisor's Name/Title: Morgan Harris, Marcus Cooper, and Phil Kohn - Clark County Public Defender

Your Title: Chief Deputy Public Defender

Duties (be specific):

While employed as an attorney at the Clark County Public Defender's Office, I was a member of two different specialty teams handling complex cases: the Sexual Assault team, and the Murder Team. I was later selected to supervise a criminal track as a Team Chief.

As a litigator in the Public Defender's Office, my responsibility for representation included, but was not limited to, the arraignment, preliminary hearing, motions, investigation, trial, and appeal, including arguing in front of the Nevada Supreme Court. Over the years of my employment in the Public Defender's Office I represented thousands of individuals with charges ranging anywhere from traffic tickets to capital murder. I handled numerous felony jury trials, and secured many favorable outcomes, including an acquittal in a murder trial.

As a Team Chief in the Clark County Public Defender's Office, I supervised a team of six to seven attorneys, an investigator, a legal assistant, and an office clerk. My responsibilities included overseeing the work of each team member, preparing and discussing yearly reviews for each team member, and assisting the attorneys in litigation. Also as a Team Chief, I was part of the management team within the Public Defender's Office that assisted in creating and implementing policy.

I also received specialized training while at the Public Defender's Office, including attending conferences around the country regarding litigation of capital murder cases and litigation of sexual assault cases.

Reason for leaving: Accepted position with Clark County as the Director of the Office of Appointed Counsel.

Current or Last Employer: Self Employed - Bell, Christensen, & Ashleman, LLC

Phone Number: 702-387-6156

Address/City/State/Zip Code: 550 E. Charleston Blvd, Suite B, Las Vegas, NV 89104

From: 1995 To: 1998

Supervisor's Name/Title: Partner in Law Firm with Rex Bell and Rene Ashleman

Your Title: Attorney/Partner

Duties (be specific):

In 1995, then District Attorney, Rex Bell, asked me to join him in going into private practice. I accepted, and we founded Bell & Christensen, LLC, which later became Bell, Christensen, & Ashleman, LLC. As a partner in a general practice litigation firm, I handled a number of matters in criminal law, family law, personal injury law, contract law, and administrative law. My work included civil trial work, administrative hearings, deposition work, and lobbying various governmental agencies. Our firm handled cases in front of the Clark County Commission, the Nevada Legislature, the Gaming Control Board, Clark County's District and Justice Courts, and Federal Court. In my capacity as a general practitioner, I gained valuable experience in family law, including appearing in front of Family Courts on cases involving divorce, spousal support, temporary protective orders, child custody, and child support.

As a partner in the firm, I managed the business. This included hiring and firing, handling the accounting, and making decisions on expenditures, among other things. I supervised a staff of administrative assistants, paralegals, and associate attorneys.

Reason for leaving: Accepted position with Clark County Public Defender's Office.

Current or Last Employer: Clark County Public Defender

Phone Number: 702-455-4685

Address/City/State/Zip Code: 309 S. Third St, Las Vegas, NV 89155

From: 1993 To: 1995

Supervisor's Name/Title: Morgan Harris - Clark County Public Defender

Your Title: Deputy Public Defender

Duties (be specific):

During this time period at the Clark County Public Defender's Office I began on a general criminal track and quickly advanced to the Murder team. I represented a number of clients charged with crimes ranging anywhere from traffic tickets to capital murder. As a litigator in the Public Defender's Office, my responsibility for representation included, but was not limited to, the arraignment, preliminary hearing, motions, investigations, trial, and appeal, including arguing in front of the Nevada Supreme Court.

Reason for leaving: Entered private practice with retiring District Attorney Rex Bell.

Current or Last Employer: Clark County District Attorney

Phone Number: 702-455-4685

Address/City/State/Zip Code: 200 S. Third St, Las Vegas, NV 89155

From: 1990 To: 1993

Supervisor's Name/Title: Rex Bell - Clark County District Attorney

Your Title: Deputy District Attorney

Duties (be specific):

As a Clark County Deputy District Attorney, I was responsible for the criminal prosecution of individuals charged with crimes. I handled hundreds of cases with charges ranging anywhere from traffic tickets to capital murder. My responsibility for criminal prosecution included, but was not limited to, the arraignment, preliminary hearing, grand jury presentations, motions, investigations, trial, and appeal, including arguing in front of the Nevada Supreme Court. I handled numerous felony jury trials, including trials prosecuting individuals charged with serious crimes such as robbery, attempted murder, and capital murder. In prosecuting cases, I communicated with victims and witnesses, worked hand in hand with the DA's Office Victim Witness Advocates, replied to media inquiries, and worked closely with law enforcement. I responded to crime scenes, engaged in investigation, interviewed witnesses, and aggressively litigated each case.

I started my career as a Deputy District Attorney assigned to a general track prosecuting mostly misdemeanor trials and felony preliminary hearings, and worked my way up to handling felony trials. Based on my success in the office, I was selected, along with two other attorneys, to start the Gang Unit within the DA's Office in 1992. Our mission was to work with law enforcement to concentrate our efforts on the prosecution of known gang members. The cases I handled while on the Gang Unit involved complex legal and factual issues and, oftentimes, difficult witnesses.

While in the DA's Office, I also taught legal classes at the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department's Academy, and spoke on behalf of the Gang Unit at community events at the request of Rex Bell. I also received specialized training while in the DA's Office, both in-house, and through attending conferences and seminars.

Ultimately, as a prosecutor, my responsibility was to ensure justice, and I had the discretion to determine how best justice would be served, be that through dismissal, negotiation, or trial. Therefore, my main duty as a prosecutor was to assess the value of each case, and determine a just resolution.

Reason for leaving: Transferred to the Clark County Public Defender's Office to practice criminal defense.

Current or Last Employer: Clark County Eighth Judicial District Court

Phone Number: 702-671-4323

Address/City/State/Zip Code: 200 S. Third St, Las Vegas, NV 89155

From: 1989 To: 1990

Supervisor's Name/Title: The Honorable J. Charles Thompson

Your Title: Law Clerk

Duties (be specific):

As a Law Clerk to District Court Judge J. Charles Thompson, I was responsible for assisting the Judge with the criminal and civil calendars, including preparing each docket and reviewing legal issues presented. To prepare for each calendar, I read any motions before the Court and then provided the Judge with legal research through bench briefs and any other necessary information to assist the Judge in his decision. I also aided the Judge during trial by researching legal issues that arose during the proceeding.

Reason for leaving: Accepted position with the Clark County District Attorney's Office to practice criminal prosecution.

-Volunteer Youth Soccer Coach in National Youth Sports League since 2006

13. List any accomplishments (i.e., educational, military service, charitable and the like) of which you want the committee to be aware.

Office of Appointed Counsel

I am the first and only Director of the Office of Appointed Counsel in Clark County. The Office of Appointed Counsel was created in 2008.

In January of 2008 the Nevada Supreme Court issued ADKT 411. In summary, the Nevada Supreme Court opined that the appointments of attorneys for indigent clients and the approval of fees, expert witnesses, and investigators by the courts created an appearance of impropriety. The order detailed that the power of appointment should be taken away from the courts and placed under the supervision of a separate entity. The Nevada Supreme Court also expressed its concerns regarding the quality of indigent criminal defense work that was being provided within Nevada. In its order, the Supreme Court released a list of performance standards for criminal defense work. All jurisdictions in Nevada were tasked with implementing the Supreme Court's orders. In Clark County, the Office of Appointed Counsel was created in response to ADKT 411.

In early 2008, my office, for the most part, was yet to be defined, and there was no precedent to follow. When I was hired to be the first Director of the Office of Appointed Counsel, one of the most important aspects of the position was to literally start the office from scratch. It was my job to create a Model Plan for the administration of the Indigent Defense Panel pursuant to the Supreme Court's order. I prepared Clark County's Model Plan for Indigent Defense, which was submitted and filed with the Nevada Supreme Court in May of 2008.

It was my job to define the office and to get it off the ground. This included decisions regarding how the office would be organized, how attorneys and investigators would be contracted and managed, how the information would be communicated to attorneys and the courts, and how the office would fit into the current criminal justice system in Clark County. I created the applications for attorneys to apply for indigent defense work and be a part of the newly created Indigent Defense Panel, and also created the contracts signed by all attorneys joining the panel. I started, and chair, the Indigent Defense Selection and Appointment Committee to select the members to the Indigent Defense Panel. I prepared performance evaluation forms to track attorneys' work product. I identified our community partners, and opened lines of communication between these partners and my office.

The office chartered new territory, and because Clark County is the largest in the state, our progress and the path we took was monitored by other counties and by the Nevada Supreme Court. I am proud to say that members of the Nevada Supreme Court have specifically expressed to me how pleased they are with the work of the Office of Appointed Counsel in Clark County and the implementation of their order.

Education

While working in the Clark County District Attorney's Office as a Deputy District Attorney, I completed my master's degree in business administration, by attending the night school program at UNLV. I am proud of this accomplishment, and it has served me well over the years in dealing with all of my administrative responsibilities.

In addition, I am proud of my educational experiences in that I have three degrees from a wide variety of disciplines, which has served me well with my variety of occupations. I have a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering from the University of Texas at Austin, a Master of Business Administration from UNLV, and a Juris Doctorate from Arizona State University.

Hearing Master

Recently, I was appointed by the Clark County Board of Commissioners as a Whistleblower Hearing Master for employees of Clark County. Consistent with Clark County Code and Nevada Statutes, I rule on cases in which an employee believes that he or she may be the subject of retaliation based on whistleblowing.

Pro Tem Judge

While in private practice, I sat as a pro tem Judge for Clark County Justice Court as a small claims referee, ruling on cases in which disputes between parties were less than $2500.00. I also sat as a traffic court referee, ruling on allegations of traffic violations.

14. In the last ten years, have you been arrested, charged or held by any federal, state, local or other law enforcement authority, including the IRS and SEC, or convicted of violation of any federal, state, or local law, regulation or ordinance? Exclude minor traffic violations and any juvenile offenses. Provide detail of the circumstances, charges, and dispositions.

No.

15. Have you ever been sued for any claim arising out of your activities as a lawyer or judge? If yes, explain.

In my capacity as an institutional criminal defense attorney, I have had to respond to several complaints seeking pre- and post conviction relief. As the Director of the Office of Appointed Counsel, I also have had to respond to similar complaints directed at the attorneys I administer, and also naming myself as a party.

16. Have you ever been the subject of an ethics, open meeting law or public records complaint? If yes, explain.

No.

17. In the last ten years, have you have ever been called upon to respond to a complaint or charge or to appear before a judicial discipline commission, a bar association grievance committee, bar association character and fitness committee; or have you ever been disciplined or cited for breach of ethics or unprofessional conduct by any court, commission, or military tribunal? If yes, explain. Include any complaints now pending.

No.

18. Are you in violation of or have you violated any court orders, including spousal and child support?

No.

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

19. Describe in detail your experience in overseeing and managing the work of other attorneys.

Director of the Office of Appointed Counsel (2008 – Present):

I provide administration for approximately 120 attorneys in the defense of Adult Criminal cases, Juvenile Delinquency cases, and Termination of Parental Rights cases. I assist in and/or review the selection of investigators, experts, and any other requests depending upon the particular case. I review hundreds of invoices submitted by attorneys each month. I am responsible for the panel of attorneys that are qualified to handle court appointed criminal and civil cases in Clark County. My management of the members of the panel includes answering legal and administrative questions from the attorneys themselves, fielding calls or complaints from the clients or courts, and reviewing documents filed by the attorneys on behalf of the clients. I monitor caseloads, compliance with performance standards, and State Bar matters, among other things, to ensure that the panel of attorneys who handle appointed work in Clark County is qualified to represent the accused.

Clark County Public Defender's Office (1998 – 2008):

I was a Team Chief of a general criminal litigation track in the Public Defender's Office. I supervised the work of a team of up to seven attorneys at a time. I provided training and mentorship to new attorneys, and support to more experienced attorneys. I assisted with the defense of clients by discussing the case and brainstorming ideas and, at times, by sitting first or second chair. It was my responsibility to schedule the team's attorneys to handle cases in several courtrooms each day, and ensure that the work was done. I had to manage vacation schedules, missed work issues, and FMLA requests, among other personnel issues. I would monitor caseloads and the complexity of the cases, all in an effort to assure that I placed the attorneys assigned to me in the best position possible for success. As the attorney responsible for the team, I also responded to a variety of issues that arose ranging from complaints about attorneys from clients or judges to ensuring that the members of the team worked well together and respected one another. I also provided yearly evaluations of the attorneys' performance, and discussed the evaluation with the attorney being reviewed.

Private Practice (1995 – 1998):

As one of the partners in a general litigation law firm, I monitored the work of associate attorneys to ensure that the attorneys were providing quality legal work on behalf of our clients.

20. Describe in detail your experience in preparing and overseeing a budget.

Director of the Office of Appointed Counsel (2008 – present):

Over the last four years, I have worked with Clark County Management in preparing and overseeing the approximate $11 million budget that is earmarked for private appointed work in Clark County. The budget includes funds for attorneys, experts, investigators, and any other appropriate expenditure in the pursuit of quality legal representation. The goal of my office is to assure quality legal representation of indigent persons without waste of public resources.

Private Practice (1995 – 1998):

As one of the partners in a general litigation law firm, I was responsible for the day to day management and control of the budget by tracking income and expenditures in order to assure that the office was remaining competitive in the legal market, while at the same time providing quality legal representation.

21. Describe in detail your experience in managing and supervising non-attorney staff subject to collective bargaining agreements.

Director of the Office of Appointed Counsel (2008 – present):

In my current position, I share in the management and supervision of administrative staff. This staff is shared between the Office of Appointed Counsel and Assistant County Management.

Clark County Public Defender's Office (1998 – 2008):

As a Team Chief of a general criminal litigation track, I supervised an investigator, administrative assistant, and office clerk that were subject to Clark County's collective bargaining agreements. As the direct supervisor of these individuals, I prepared yearly evaluations, and discussed with each employee his or her evaluation. I also aided in instruction and training of new employees.

As a Team Chief, I became familiar with supervising employees subject to collective bargaining agreements. I received training and attended meetings and classes regarding how to work within said bargaining agreements. I also attended a week-long seminar in Chicago, Illinois on the details of Public Defender Management, including training on supervising attorneys and non-attorney staff.

OTHER

22. If appointed, do you intend to seek election to this office?

Yes.

I verify by my signature below that all statements made on the personal information form and application form are true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand that any false statement may be cause for rejection of my application. I further understand that the County may make inquiries to verify any statement made on the application form including information relating to education, bar admission, and experience.
